

WOMEN IN MOTORCYCLING

BIBLIOGRAPHY

ADVANCING WOMEN IN MOTORCYCLING PROGRAMME

BIBLIOGRAPHY

- Bousigue, A., Namashivaya, A., and Bankapalli, S.R., Evolution of women in Motorcycling, an AISTS research paper, July 2008.
- Catalyst, The Bottom Line: Connecting Corporate, Performance and Gender Diversity (Catalyst, 2004).
- Moser, J-P., Strategy for the development of sporting activity of women in Motorcycling sport, MEMOS research paper, September 2005.
- The Brighton Declaration for women in sport is attached hereto.

USEFUL LINKS

The following information and links may be useful for understanding terms used in this programme or for further information in relation to gender equity issues. They may be useful for anyone seeking further information or resources in relation to women in sport:

- Women in Motorcycling Commission: Information on what is going on for women in motorcycling related activities: www.fim-live.com
- Lausanne Network for Women in International Sport: www.lnwis.org
- The International Working Group on Women in Sport: www.iwg-gti.org
- Australian Sports Commission, women's participation in sport: www.ausport.gov.au
- Canadian Association for the Advancement of Women in Sport and physical activity: www.caaws.ca
- Coaching Female Athletes - advice and development of policy concerning issues impacting women in sport. Contact: Australian Sports Commission, National Programmes -Women, P.O. Box 176, Belconnen, ACT 2616 www.ausport.gov.au
- European women and Sport www.ews-online.org
- The Brighton Declaration, The Montreal Tool Kit on Women in Sport and other useful documents, available in English, French, Japanese and Spanish www.iwg-gti.org
- UNESCO Guidelines for Gender Neutral Language, English and French unesdoc.unesco.org
- United Kingdom Women's Sport and Fitness Foundation wsff.org.uk
- United States, Women's Sport Foundation: Founded by Billie Jean King in 1974 www.womenssportsfoundation.org

Please contact us at:
women@fim.ch